

Inevitablution

by Rev. Stephen Towles (October 11, 2009)

Evolution is inevitable,
Change is marching to a beat.
Who's drum is beating?
What is the destination?

We do have a choice,
About waking up,
About being aware,
About Inevitablution!

So wake up,
You are a spiritual being.
You are evolution in the flesh,
The inner manifesting as the outer.

So choose your thoughts carefully,
Consciously and clearly.
And act like the spiritual being you are,
And celebrate.

Take what you are,
And become God's creation.
The product of a thought,
An idea in expression.

And the inevitable march of evolution,
Will be shaped and formed
By the conscious being you are,
An evolved spirit of good.
