

Perfecting our Imperfections

by Rev. Stephen Towles (November 8, 2009)

The imperfect is perfect,
Dysfunctionally functional,
Beauty in its imperfection.
Always perfect in its creation,
Even if it is not so.
God doesn't create imperfection,
Because the divine can't imagine it.
All creation is perfect,
Created for a purpose,
Imbued with what is necessary,
To fulfill its reason for being.
That is the Truth.
