

Serving

by Rev. Stephen Towles (July 12, 2009)

The shape is in the sculptors mind,
The work is to bring it into being,
With hands connected to the divine.
We are the artwork of God,
Shaped from a divine idea.
Brought into being for reason,
To bring good.
Serving is the art of bringing good,
Into a world that needs it.
